Passport for Leisure

As part of the Lord Mayor's Special Initiative for older people 'Embracing Ageing', we are proud to offer you your own Passport for Leisure.

Your passport is a discount card and directory that unlocks a vast array of free and discounted leisure opportunities in Ireland's most vibrant, exhilarating city.

What your Passport gives you:

For only €10, your Passport for Leisure includes vouchers and discounts worth hundreds of euros.

In addition to discounted access to several of Dublin City Council's sport, leisure and recreational facilities, your Passport offers you discounts from many businesses throughout the city.

Whether you are already an avid sporting enthusiast or whether you would like to experience something new – perhaps something you'd always dreamed of trying – your Passport for Leisure and detailed directory will inspire you with countless leisure and recreational ideas.

The range of activities available is virtually limitless, including:

swimming, eating out, golf, pitch & putt, gymnasiums, shopping, travel, cultural events, great days out in Dublin and so much more...

Growing older doesn't have to mean slowing down. On the contrary, now is the time to fully embrace life, and the abundant variety of opportunities Dublin offers.
